ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

FEBRUARY 15, 2026 | THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | ARTIST: CLAUDE VIGNON

FROM OUR PRIESTS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Blessed Sunday to you all! The readings over the last couple of weeks have lent themselves to a particular focus on action and what our activity should look like as disciples of Jesus. That trend continues today, especially as the first reading lays out one of the central principles of Old Testament morality and the reality of free will.

The Book of Sirach, in this section, makes a clear reference to Deuteronomy 30:15, which puts forth what is typically called the theology of retribution. At its most basic level, this principle says that God will bless those who choose good, which means being obedient and faithful to God's commandments, and that those who choose evil will be left to perish. What is most important for today, though, is that we have the freedom to choose. This freedom was given to us at the moment of our creation and brings with it responsibility for our actions and their consequences, whether good or evil.

While the freedom to choose good and reject evil is very straightforward, in the real situations of life it is much more difficult. This is where we need the wisdom and power of God to help us. The Spirit reveals the truth to us and reveals to us and reveals what is truly good. Once we have heard the Gospel and come to believe in Jesus Christ, we must make a firm choice and commitment to conform our whole lives to the way of discipleship. As disciples, we cannot simply ignore our interior manifestations of sin, even if they never fully rise to the surface in our actions. Entertaining thoughts of anger, lust, pride, or any other sin is to "play with fire" and can easily lead to the death of the life of grace in the soul through mortal sin.

We are now at the cusp of the season of Lent, which is a great opportunity to make a full commitment of the will to choose the path of discipleship. This may look like a recommitment to the work you are already doing, taking the first steps toward missionary work that the Lord has placed upon your heart, or taking time to intercede for a greater outpouring of divine wisdom so that you can clearly see the good work the Father has for you. Whatever stage you may find yourself in, let us all commit together to always choosing that which is good and brings life, by every thought, word, and action.

God Bless You, Fr. Jack

WE EXIST TO FORM
A COMMUNITY OF SPIRIT-FILLED
MISSIONARY DISCIPLES OF JESUS

How Is God Calling You to Live the Mission?

To fully unpack what it means to form a community of Spirit-filled, missionary disciples of Jesus, we invite you to reflect on our mission through four foundational pillars and prayerfully discern how God may be calling you to live this mission in your daily life.

Community

The Christian life is not meant to be lived alone. Jesus never sent His disciples out one by one—faith grows when we are intentionally invited into Christ-centered relationships and a shared life of discipleship.

Spirit-Filled

The Church is transformed when the Holy Spirit is welcomed and obeyed. We desire the full outpouring of grace, as at Pentecost.

Missionary

Every disciple is entrusted with the mission to proclaim Jesus—beginning with those closest to us and extending to every sphere of life.

Disciples

A disciple is one whose entire life is formed by Jesus—not only through teaching, but through relationship and example.

CANDIDATE FOR THE ORDER OF DIACONATE

SJB CAMPUS MINISTRY

Equipping College Students, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, to Proclaim Jesus!

A few weekends ago, we were blessed to take our student missionaries on a one-day inner healing retreat. This retreat was made possible through the generosity of our parishioners who have participated in JP2 Healing Center programs and used their materials. We are especially grateful to Jessica Jenkins for her help in planning and carrying out the retreat.

The retreat was peaceful and deeply blessed. There was a tangible experience of the Father's love and the presence of the Holy Spirit. The students truly enjoyed their time together and were empowered by the Holy Spirit. Please continue to pray for our students, that the Lord may continue His work in their hearts.

Blessed Fra Angelico

FEBRUARY 18TH, 2026

Bl. John of Fiesole, popularly known as Bl. Fra Angelico, was a Dominican painter in the mid-fifteenth century known for the beauty of his paintings and the holiness of his priestly life. Nicknamed “Angelico” by his brothers, his Dominican consecration and life are worthy of imitation as he preached Jesus Christ by his life, his words, and his paintings.

Given the name Guido at Baptism, this blessed was born near Vicchio, in the vicinity of Florence, at the end of the 14th century. From his youth he practiced the art of painting. Having entered the Dominican convent in Fiesole, he was given the name Brother Giovanni (Brother John). After ordination he held various responsibilities, one of which was that of prior of the convent in Fiesole.

Faithful to the promises he made as a Dominican, to preach the Gospel after having contemplated it in prayer, Fra Angelico put his creativity at the disposal of the Lord. With brush and paint in hand, he used his talents to transmit to all people the sublimity and the redemptive strength of the divine mysteries.

Between 1425 and 1447, Fra Angelico carried out his activity for the Dominican convents and other ecclesiastical institutes at Fiesole, Florence (most especially at the convent of San Marco), Cortona and Orvieto. The fame of his genius merited him the esteem of the Sovereign Pontiffs Eugenio IV and Nicolas V, who contracted him for the task of frescoing several rooms in the Vatican Palace (1445-49).

Fra Angelico died on February 18, 1455, in the convent of Santa Maria Sopra Minerva in Rome and was buried in the adjoining Basilica, where his body was covered by a simple slab on which was carved his portrait. With a personality that was uncomplicated and clear, Brother Giovanni had lived a poor and humble life, refusing honors and positions.

The virtue and the profound religious spirit which characterized the life of this artist and Dominican is reflected in his spirituality, his purity, and the luminosity of his art. Even before his official recognition as a blessed of the Church, he had been given by the faithful the title “Beato Angelico.” In a moving ceremony on October 18, 1984, Pope John Paul II, on his knees in front of Fra Angelico’s tomb, proclaimed him solemnly to be the universal patron of all artists.

The Incarnation was one of Fra Angelico’s favorite themes, and he painted over 25 variations of it. His painted meditations, so needed at the time of the early Renaissance, are still necessary today. God became man to bring us closer to Himself by way of all things human. He makes all things new by fashioning them into possible vehicles of grace for us, so that by visible realities and concrete concepts, we can arrive at an understanding and a love of higher, invisible realities, all leading to God Himself

Blessed Fra Angelico, Pray for us!
